

LET THEIR VOICES BE HEARD

In Honor of Human Trafficking Awareness Month
We Present the Film:
California's Forgotten Children

DATE: January 28th, 2020
TIME: Doors open 5:30 pm
LOCATION: Arts & Computational Sciences Building
(ACS) Rm 120

Panel discussion following the film featuring:

- Melody Miller, Director & Producer
- Lt. Daniel Foss of Madera Police Dept. & co-founder of OLIVE a community funded nonprofit dedicated to supporting survivors of human trafficking
- Gameelah Alsamah, Human Trafficking Victim's Advocate, Valley Crisis Center
- Janet Ruscoe MSN, RN- Vice President/Chief Nurse Executive Officer & Merced Dignity Health Human Trafficking Counsel Chairman

Open to Students, Staff, & Faculty
Community members interested in attending, please email CARE to reserve a seat
Email: ucmcare@ucmerced.edu | Website: care.ucmerced.edu

VOICES will be fundraising for Valley Crisis Center's human trafficking victim's advocacy program, all $10+ donations will receive a human trafficking awareness T-shirt!